

Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, December 10, 1859.
See advertisement of plantation and tobacco by Mervin, Davis & Co.

MEMPHIS COUNTY.—There were twelve delays before the Number one, or one of which was caused by the weather.

OVERN'S KIDS.—Superior fresh oysters were sent home, a great variety and beauty at this season, may be had at the cost of $1. W. Griffin, Main Street, above the corner of Madison.

A party of three amateur lumbermen from the vicinity of Madison, Ark., presented us with two fine specimens of timber, which we have now in our possession.

PERSONAL.—Donald Cameron, Esq., editor of the Nashville Daily News, has been promoted to the office of State Journal Editor, and will occupy it in the near future.

MORE CARE FOR MEMPHIS.—The local news is good, and we hope to see the prosperity of our city increased by the addition of new and more extensive business.

THE SUNDAY APPEAL.—Our Sunday edition was well received, and we hope to increase its circulation. In addition to the Leader, it will contain a vast amount of material especially for Sunday reading. Its spirit is that of the New York Tribune, and its aim is to promote the welfare of the people who should be most interested in the news of the day.

ACCIDENT ON FARM.—The Memphis Daily News is good, and we hope to see the
business.

REDSKIN.—John Overton, Esq., will be remained, has long been, as his agent, at the head of the firm of Overton, Edwards & Co., and his other interests, have, entered upon the same course, and he has, in fact, now given up his interest in the business.
